

On Monday 14th July, at 12:00, in the amphitheatre of the Greek Ministry of Culture in Athens, a press conference was carried out on the program “CIVILISATION” and more specifically on the proposal of the Modern Greek Art Museum:

“1st Mediterranean Triennale of Engraving and Establishment of Open Engraving Workshop”.

Various members of the funding and organizing services were present. Such were The general secretary of the Greek Ministry of Culture, Mr. Theodoros Dravillas, the mayor of Rhodes, Mr. Hatzis Hatziefthimiou, the vice-mayor of culture, Mr. Antonis Alahouzos and the president of the museum Mrs. Mary Kampouroupolou, as well as Mrs. Mary Michailidou, Mr. Emmanuel Mavromatis and Mr. Nickos Desekopoulos, members of the organizing committee.

Apart from Greek and foreign reporters, the press conferences was also attended by a number of other people relevant to the event. These were the General Director of Contemporary Civilization, Mr. Lucas Iakovakis, the head of the Direction of Pictorial Arts, Mrs. Maria Machaira, the head of Financial Services of the Ministry of Culture, Mrs. Machi Economou, the head of International Affairs of the Municipality of Rhodes, Mrs. Lee Minaidi and Mrs. Evi Pliaka-Kampouraki, and Nancy Pappou, members of the board of the Museum. Moreover, there were representative of Embassies of Mediterranean countries, engravers and representatives of museums.